SHAPING ARROWS:

HELPING YOUR CHILDREN UNDERSTAND BIBLICAL SEXUALITY

CLASS #3: DISCUSSING BIBLICAL SEXUALITY WITH CHILDREN & TEENS

1.) GRACE-FILLED AUTHORITY

JOHN 8:1-11

1.) GRACE-FILLED AUTHORITY

- People (including your kids) are sinners. Don't be surprised at their imperfections but don't indicate acceptance of their depravity
  - Most important when a son/daughter comes with an admission (even if not a confession)
  - You are not merely a friend or counselor. You must maintain your authority and the ethics of your household.
  - When upholding authority, you must be extra-intentional about showing extravagant love to your child
  - This is also VERY IMPORTANT when kids talk to you about the sexual misbehavior of other people – strangers or friends. We do not want to raise a generation of Pharisees.

2.) HOLISTIC REASONING

JOHN 4:14-26

2.) HOLISTIC REASONING

- Our bodies and minds are broken and mislead us. But proper sexual ethic without knowing Jesus is useless.
  - Desire
    - Remind kids that our minds and bodies are good, but broken. This means we sometimes desire things that are not the best for us.
    - Point kids to the "desire behind the desire." Only Jesus can give them what they truly desire
    - Preach the satisfying nature of Jesus to your kids more than good moral behavior!
  - Authority
    - Remind kids that everyone gets their idea of right and wrong from somewhere. We get ours from the Bible because God created us, wants what's best for us, and is the only being that doesn't change his mind!

3.) POSITIVE VISION-CASTING

EPHESIANS 5

3.) POSITIVE VISION-CASTING

- It's not about what someone can't do, it's about how beautiful God's purpose is.
    - "It would seem that Our Lord finds our desires not too strong, but too weak. We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at the sea. We are far too easily pleased." - C.S. Lewis

3.) POSITIVE VISON-CASTING

- It's not about what someone can't do, it's about how beautiful God's purpose is.
- No one – your kids included – will be willing to sacrifice temporary happiness if they're not convinced that the lasting joy God promises is far better.
- Describe the beauty of sexual expression in marriage the way God designed. It is the only expression that makes sense of our mind, body, and soul.
- Point kids to the greater, ultimate fulfillment of marriage when we will be united with Christ in the New Heaven and New Earth. All temporary pleasures will pale in comparison to that. That is what we ultimately want!
