

Blessed Are Those Who Mourn | Dan Spino

Before a Holy God we mourn and are comforted

1. Mourn for our sin
2. Mourn for the sin around us
3. The comfort that we receive

1. Have you thought about the Kingdom of Heaven (or the Kingdom of God) before? What type of response does it elicit when you think about yourself in light of God's Kingdom?
2. Have you ever mourned your sin? What does it look like to mourn your sin?
3. Do you feel comfortable inviting the other members of your LifeGroup to point out your sin when they see it? Why or why not?
4. How can you contribute to make your LifeGroup a safe place to confess sin and to mourn over this sin?
5. What does mourning the sins of others look like in your faith journey?
6. What other passages in the Bible come to mind when you read and reflect on Matthew 5:4?

Challenge Verse

Each week we want to challenge you to memorize a verse(s) related to the sermon. This week's verse is Matthew 5:4:

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
