

Questions for Reflection/Discussion:

1. Have you ever thought about the direct line between the resurrection of Jesus and some of the things you experience in your heart and mind daily? Hope and Forgiveness were mentioned in the sermon, what are some others?
2. How have you found it hard to live in hope during COVID?
3. What are ways we can continue to draw ourselves back to the hope that is ours through the resurrection of Jesus?
4. How have you found it hard to live in the freedom from shame the resurrection of Jesus offers you
5. Who are you struggling to forgive in spite of the fact that the resurrection of Jesus has brought forgiveness to you?
