

Christians and the Truth, Matthew 5:33-37 | Trent Thompson

Jesus teaches us that His followers must always love and speak the truth.

Let's walk through Matthew 5:33 - 37

Why do we love the truth?

How does the gospel enable us to always speak the truth?

Christians and the Truth, Matthew 5:33-37 | Trent Thompson

Jesus teaches us that His followers must always love and speak the truth.

Let's walk through Matthew 5:33 - 37

Why do we love the truth?

How does the gospel enable us to always speak the truth?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Read Matthew 5:33-37. What is one question this passage raises for you?
2. Can you remember a time you lied as kid? As an adult?
3. Is there a pattern to the reasons you have usually lied over the course of your life? When do you find it hardest to tell the truth now?
4. Can you remember a time you told the truth even though it was hard? How were you able to do this?
5. Have you found it to be true that there is no freedom without the truth? Why or why not?
6. Have you ever connected the elimination of the need for self-preservation and self-advancement found in the gospel to be remedy for lying? How can we more fully access this reality so that we are truth-tellers?
7. Are you currently lying to anyone? If so, what will you do to make this right?

Memory Verse: Matthew 5:37

³⁷ Let what you say be simply 'Yes' or 'No'; anything more than this comes from evil.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Read Matthew 5:33-37. What is one question this passage raises for you?
2. Can you remember a time you lied as kid? As an adult?
3. Is there a pattern to the reasons you have usually lied over the course of your life? When do you find it hardest to tell the truth now?
4. Can you remember a time you told the truth even though it was hard? How were you able to do this?
5. Have you found it to be true that there is no freedom without the truth? Why or why not?
6. Have you ever connected the elimination of the need for self-preservation and self-advancement found in the gospel to be remedy for lying? How can we more fully access this reality so that we are truth-tellers?
7. Are you currently lying to anyone? If so, what will you do to make this right?

Memory Verse: Matthew 5:37

³⁷ Let what you say be simply 'Yes' or 'No'; anything more than this comes from evil.