

Christians and Retaliation, Matthew 5:38-42 | Trent Thompson

Christians no longer look for ways to hurt those who hurt them. Instead, they look for ways to bless them.

Don't try to hurt those who hurt you.

Look for ways to bless them instead.

Christians and Retaliation, Matthew 5:38-42 | Trent Thompson

Christians no longer look for ways to hurt those who hurt them. Instead, they look for ways to bless them.

Don't try to hurt those who hurt you.

Look for ways to bless them instead.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you from this passage and from the sermon?
2. Which is more difficult: not retaliating against someone who wrongs you or seeking to bless someone who wrongs you? Why? What makes each one hard?
3. Can you remember a time when someone hurt you and you hurt them back? What about a time when you didn't hurt someone back? What made the difference between these two situations?
4. How have you blessed someone who hurt you? Is there any situation where you currently need to do that?

Memory Verse: Matthew 5:38 - 39

³⁸ "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' ³⁹ But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you from this passage and from the sermon?
2. Which is more difficult: not retaliating against someone who wrongs you or seeking to bless someone who wrongs you? Why? What makes each one hard?
3. Can you remember a time when someone hurt you and you hurt them back? What about a time when you didn't hurt someone back? What made the difference between these two situations?
4. How have you blessed someone who hurt you? Is there any situation where you currently need to do that?

Memory Verse: Matthew 5:38 - 39

³⁸ "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' ³⁹ But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also.