

Keep Awake: Live in Light of the Lord's Return

1 Thessalonians Overview | Trent Thompson

The best way to be ready for the Lord's return is to let His gospel guide every part of your life.

Let the gospel teach us how to think about persecution.

Let the gospel teach us how to think about relationships.

Let the gospel teach us how to think about work.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Have you ever read/studied I Thessalonians before? Are there any portions of it that you know or have been meaningful to you?
2. What aspect of Christ's return has typically gotten your attention most? Why do you think Paul emphasizes our day to day lives as the most important way to be ready for Jesus' return?
3. We mentioned persecution, relationships, and work in this sermon. How does the gospel change our perspective in these areas of life? How have you seen that in your life?
4. What are some other parts of life in which the gospel changes our perspective? How?
5. If Jesus were to return tomorrow, in which area of your life are you least prepared to give an account to Him? How can you work for change in this?

Memory Verse: I Thessalonians 5:5 - 6

⁵ For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. ⁶ So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober.
