

West Shore Free
John 14
Peace for the Troubled Heart

2.16.20

West Shore Free
John 14
Peace for the Troubled Heart

2.16.20

Understanding the root of the trouble in our hearts.

Understanding the root of the trouble in our hearts.

He is preparing a place for us. (1-4)

He is preparing a place for us. (1-4)

There is no chance you won't get there. (5-6)

There is no chance you won't get there. (5-6)

You have important work to do and power to do it. (12-15)

You have important work to do and power to do it. (12-15)

You have two lawyers. (16-17)

You have two lawyers. (16-17)

Jesus is alive. (18-24)

Jesus is alive. (18-24)

The devil couldn't stop Jesus then and he can't stop Him now. (30-31)

The devil couldn't stop Jesus then and he can't stop Him now. (30-31)

Questions for Discussion/Reflection:

1. What stood out to you from the text and sermon?
2. What have you typically understood to be the cause of your lack of peace? What are the implications of seeing unbelief as its root?
3. Which of the peace giving truths Jesus spoke in this chapter did you most need to hear and why?
4. Can you think of a time when you effectively used God's truth to fight your fear? What did you do that helped truth dislodge unbelief?
5. What insights might this chapter offer us about how we can help others fight against fear?
6. Take time to pray together as a group about whatever is currently troubling your hearts. Wait on the Spirit as you do so to see if there are any specific words He might offer through you to each other.

Questions for Discussion/Reflection:

1. What stood out to you from the text and sermon?
2. What have you typically understood to be the cause of your lack of peace? What are the implications of seeing unbelief as its root?
3. Which of the peace giving truths Jesus spoke in this chapter did you most need to hear and why?
4. Can you think of a time when you effectively used God's truth to fight your fear? What did you do that helped truth dislodge unbelief?
5. What insights might this chapter offer us about how we can help others fight against fear?
6. Take time to pray together as a group about whatever is currently troubling your hearts. Wait on the Spirit as you do so to see if there are any specific words He might offer through you to each other.