The Greatest Of These Is Love | Trent Thompson

1 Corinthians 13:1-3 & 13

1. What do we mistake for maturity? (1 Corinthians 13:1-3)
2. Why is love the mark of maturity? (1 Corinthians 13:13)

1. What stood out to you from the sermon?
2. Why do you think Paul goes to such great lengths to show love as the mark of Christian maturity?
3. What are your primary spiritual gifts? How can you distinguish when you are using those gifts with love and without?
4. Which of the characteristics of love in 1 Corinthians 13:4-12 would you most like to grow in during this sermon series? What's one thing you can do toward that end and one way your Life Group can help you?

Challenge Verse

Each week we want to challenge you to memorize 1 verse from our teaching passage. This week's verse is: 1 Corinthians 13:1-3 & 13

(v 1- 3)

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.

(v 13)

So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.
