DISCUSSION & REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you most from the sermon?
2. Can you think of a time when having a good friend led to making a wise decision?
3. Have you experienced the difficulties of choosing the wrong friends? If so how? Do any of the points about choosing friends from the sermon apply to this situation?
4. Where do you need to grow most in the kind of friend you are?
5. How can your Life Group get better at practicing these marks of wise friendship? Is there something you know you know you should say in response to this question but are afraid to?
