

SERMON NOTES

Responding to Violence Rooted
in Racial Hatred

08.11.2019

Trent Thompson

---

Responding to Violence Generally

Responding to Violence Rooted in Racial Hatred

SERMON NOTES

Responding to Violence Rooted
In Racial Hatred

08.11.2019

Trent Thompson

---

Responding to Violence Generally

Responding to Violence Rooted in Racial Hatred

DISCUSSION & REFLECTION QUESTIONS

---

1. What stood out to you from the sermon? What did you agree or disagree with and what questions were raised for you?
2. How are you trying to practice hospitality with people who are not Christians? Can you make a connection between this practice and moving our culture away from violence?
3. Do you find it difficult or uncomfortable to discuss issues of race? Why or why not?
4. Did Sunday's discussion of a biblical theology of race challenge anything about your perspective or raise any questions for you?
5. If you are a minority, what aspect of your experience do you wish majority people could better understand? If you are not a minority, how might you seek to learn more about the answer to this question?
6. What attitudes or beliefs, which represent the seeds of violence towards people of other races, do you see in yourself? What does a biblical approach of confession and repentance look like in this area?

DISCUSSION & REFLECTION QUESTIONS

---

1. What stood out to you from the sermon? What did you agree or disagree with and what questions were raised for you?
2. How are you trying to practice hospitality with people who are not Christians? Can you make a connection between this practice and moving our culture away from violence?
3. Do you find it difficult or uncomfortable to discuss issues of race? Why or why not?
4. Did Sunday's discussion of a biblical theology of race challenge anything about your perspective or raise any questions for you?
5. If you are a minority, what aspect of your experience do you wish majority people could better understand? If you are not a minority, how might you seek to learn more about the answer to this question?
6. What attitudes or beliefs, which represent the seeds of violence towards people of other races, do you see in yourself? What does a biblical approach of confession and repentance look like in this area?

