DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Have you ever encountered something very powerful? What was it like and what was your response? What does it tell you about yourself that this was your reaction?
2. Isaiah chooses to say that the Messiah would be MIGHTY God (as opposed to Gracious God, or Faithful God, etc.). Why do you think he does this?
3. In Jesus, God puts all His might into the form of an infant to conquer sin, death, and the devil. That is an unexpected approach. How else have you seen God show His power in unexpected ways in your life?
4. How can we grow in expecting God to use His power in unexpected ways?
5. In Jesus, God puts all His might into the form of an infant to conquer sin, death, and the devil. That means He conquers through humility and vulnerability. How do you need to grow in embracing humility and vulnerability so God can work through you?
