

His Name Shall Be Called
Jesus, Everlasting Father | Nate Winters

Isaiah 9:6-7

Jesus as “father”? Two possible reactions:

Jesus, our king/father, provides for us by:

1. His strength to carry:
2. His peace to rule:
3. His righteousness to work:
4. His promise to endure:
5. His passion to succeed:

His Name Shall Be Called
Jesus, Everlasting Father | Nate Winters

Isaiah 9:6-7

Jesus as “father”? Two possible reactions:

Jesus, our king/father, provides for us by:

1. His strength to carry:
2. His peace to rule:
3. His righteousness to work:
4. His promise to endure:
5. His passion to succeed:

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How have these specific names of Jesus - Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace - impressed you, and why?
2. What other names of Jesus do you value, and why?
3. How have you seen Jesus “carrying” you lately? Have you seen an increase in the peace of Jesus in your life - or anywhere - lately?
4. Remember the Sermon on the Mount from last summer: have you seen the emergence of those Kingdom values - the establishing of Jesus’ justice & righteousness - lately? Where and how?
5. In what ways/situations might Jesus be calling you to trust Him to be fatherly in your life?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How have these specific names of Jesus - Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace - impressed you, and why?
2. What other names of Jesus do you value, and why?
3. How have you seen Jesus “carrying” you lately? Have you seen an increase in the peace of Jesus in your life - or anywhere - lately?
4. Remember the Sermon on the Mount from last summer: have you seen the emergence of those Kingdom values - the establishing of Jesus’ justice & righteousness - lately? Where and how?
5. In what ways/situations might Jesus be calling you to trust Him to be fatherly in your life?