

A King for the People & a People for the King
The End of Solomon's Reign | Trent Thompson

---

Part 1: God goes to great lengths to be with His people. (I Kings 5-8)

Part 2: His people don't respond with love and obedience. (I Kings 9-11)

Part 3: God makes a new temple.

A King for the People & a People for the King
The End of Solomon's Reign | Trent Thompson

---

Part 1: God goes to great lengths to be with His people. (I Kings 5-8)

Part 2: His people don't respond with love and obedience. (I Kings 9-11)

Part 3: God makes a new temple.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

---

1. Who in your life has done the best job of showing you they love to be with you? How did they show this to you? Why was this expression most helpful to you?
2. Do you tend to think of God as One who wants to be near you or as more distant? What shaped this view in your life?
3. Why can't blessings from God like wealth and wisdom keep us faithful to Him in the long run?
4. We listed several ways Jesus became our better temple (our means and place of worship). Did any stand out to you? Why?
5. What practices have you put in place to enjoy the beauty and love of God through Christ? What practices do you need to put in place?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

---

1. Who in your life has done the best job of showing you they love to be with you? How did they show this to you? Why was this expression most helpful to you?
2. Do you tend to think of God as One who wants to be near you or as more distant? What shaped this view in your life?
3. Why can't blessings from God like wealth and wisdom keep us faithful to Him in the long run?
4. We listed several ways Jesus became our better temple (our means and place of worship). Did any stand out to you? Why?
5. What practices have you put in place to enjoy the beauty and love of God through Christ? What practices do you need to put in place?