

A King for the People & a People for the King
Demonstrating & Declaring that God Alone is God | Trent Thompson

---

Context: From Kings to Prophets.

What can we learn from Elijah about demonstrating and declaring that God alone is God?

1. God is committed to raising this kind of voice when false gods are taking hold of hearts.
2. Demonstrating the impotence of idols will be a big part of the work.
3. The calling is costly, but God will provide.
4. Have faith, there is nowhere God's power doesn't reach.
5. We must do what God says even when it costs those we love.
6. Our declaration of God's power must be matched by our demonstration of His love and mercy.
7. We must be bold in prayer.
8. We will have the joy of seeing people believe in Jesus.

A King for the People & a People for the King
Demonstrating & Declaring that God Alone is God | Trent Thompson

---

Context: From Kings to Prophets.

What can we learn from Elijah about demonstrating and declaring that God alone is God?

1. God is committed to raising this kind of voice when false gods are taking hold of hearts.
2. Demonstrating the impotence of idols will be a big part of the work.
3. The calling is costly, but God will provide.
4. Have faith, there is nowhere God's power doesn't reach.
5. We must do what God says even when it costs those we love.
6. Our declaration of God's power must be matched by our demonstration of His love and mercy.
7. We must be bold in prayer.
8. We will have the joy of seeing people believe in Jesus.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

---

1. Read I Kings 17 again. What do you think is the main message of this chapter? What do you take away from it?
2. What is the first thing you think of when you think of Old Testament prophets? How would you describe their role in God's work? Why?
3. Why does demonstrating and declaring that God alone is God involve showing His power, love, and mercy?
4. Which of the 8 lessons learned from Elijah above seems most applicable to your life? Why?
5. Where has God sent you to demonstrate and declare that He alone is God? What is your next step in doing this work?

Scripture Memory: Job 38:25

"Who has cleft a channel for the torrents of rain and a way for the thunderbolt"

Next Week's Text: I Kings 18

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

---

1. Read I Kings 17 again. What do you think is the main message of this chapter? What do you take away from it?
2. What is the first thing you think of when you think of Old Testament prophets? How would you describe their role in God's work? Why?
3. Why does demonstrating and declaring that God alone is God involve showing His power, love, and mercy?
4. Which of the 8 lessons learned from Elijah above seems most applicable to your life? Why?
5. Where has God sent you to demonstrate and declare that He alone is God? What is your next step in doing this work?

Scripture Memory: Job 38:25

"Who has cleft a channel for the torrents of rain and a way for the thunderbolt"

Next Week's Text: I Kings 18