Isaiah 52:13-53:12
6 Reasons Christ Suffered and Died

May 20, 2018
Trent Thompson

Why did Christ suffer and die?

1. To be glorified and to glorify the Father (52:13, 53:10)
2. To reveal the horror of sin (52:14-15)
3. To teach us not to love the praise of men more than the pleasure of God (53:3)
4. To bear the wrath of God as our substitute (53:4-6)
5. To be our example when we suffer unjustly (53:7-9)
6. To make righteous children for God (53:10-11)

Questions for Discussion/Reflection

1. Which part of Isaiah 52:13-53:12 grabs your attention most? Why?
2. Were any of the 6 reasons Christ suffered and died new to you? Were any confusing? Did any evoke joyful worship more than the others? If so, why?
3. Has your view of Jesus' work typically been more man-centered or God-centered? How would you identify the difference between the two and do you think these distinctions matter?
4. What is the right response of God's people to Jesus' suffering and death? List as many as you can think of.
5. Take time as a group to pray prayers of thanks to God for the work of Jesus on the cross.
