

A King for the People & a People for the King
Love Wisdom / Hate Foolishness | Trent Thompson

Fools exchange obedience for human strategy. (Ch. 20)

Fools resent Wisdom. (21:1-4)

Fools see power as a tool for personal gain. (21:5-16)

Fools equate correction with attack. (21:17-20)

Fools think they are free but have a master they don't see. (21:20)

Fools will ultimately be destroyed by their own foolishness (21:21-24)

A King for the People & a People for the King
Love Wisdom / Hate Foolishness | Trent Thompson

Fools exchange obedience for human strategy. (Ch. 20)

Fools resent Wisdom. (21:1-4)

Fools see power as a tool for personal gain. (21:5-16)

Fools equate correction with attack. (21:17-20)

Fools think they are free but have a master they don't see. (21:20)

Fools will ultimately be destroyed by their own foolishness (21:21-24)

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you in this week's sermon/text? What were your takeaways?
2. Why must a follower of God (our True King) practice wisdom and not foolishness?
3. Have you ever chosen to do something foolish, knowing it was foolish? Why do you think you still chose this?
4. Have you ever struggled to know what wisdom required of you in a specific circumstance? What steps do you typically follow to decide the path of wisdom?
5. Is there anywhere you are currently doing something foolish? How can your Life Group help you begin to walk the path of wisdom in this area of your life?

Memory Verse: I Corinthians 1:25

²⁵ For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

-
1. What stood out to you in this week's sermon/text? What were your takeaways?
 2. Why must a follower of God (our True King) practice wisdom and not foolishness?
 3. Have you ever chosen to do something foolish, knowing it was foolish? Why do you think you still chose this?
 4. Have you ever struggled to know what wisdom required of you in a specific circumstance? What steps do you typically follow to decide the path of wisdom?
 5. Is there anywhere you are currently doing something foolish? How can your Life Group help you begin to walk the path of wisdom in this area of your life?

Memory Verse: I Corinthians 1:25

²⁵ For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS