A King for the People & a People for the King
2 Kings 9 - 10 | Trent Thompson

Playing Catch-Up:

We need a King who can carry out God's word of judgement perfectly.

We need a King who can do more than judge.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Before your group discussion have everyone take the time to read 2 Kings 9-10 by themselves. What stood out to each of you from these chapters? What questions do they raise?
2. What prevents us, as humans, from being perfect judges? How should this inability to judge situations and people perfectly inform the way we approach others?
3. Have you ever condemned something you shouldn't have? Have you ever failed to condemn something you should have? What was the result of those situations?
4. As you reflect on Jesus' perfect judgement for what do you find yourself particularly grateful?
5. We believe only Jesus is able to bring to fulfillment God's words of salvation. What are some other promises of God only Jesus can ultimately bring to fulfillment? How have you seen Him do that in the here and now?

Scripture Memory: 2 Kings 10:10

"Know then that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab, for the LORD has done what he said by his servant Elijah."

Next Week's Text: 2 Kings 11-12
