

Galatians: Christ Sets Us Free

How Do We Know the Gospel is Able to Set Free? | Trent Thompson

Galatians 1:11-24

Its origins are divine not human. (11)

It changes lives. (13)

It is costly. (14)

It is God centered, not people centered. (24)

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Read Galatians 1:11-24. What do you find remarkable about Paul's conversion described here?
2. If you are a Christian, what did God do to save you? What was the most convincing or important thing He did to bring you to faith? If you are not a Christian, what is the greatest objection that keeps you from believing the gospel?
3. When you are discussing the gospel with people who don't believe it what do you find to be the most helpful piece of evidence that it is God's plan not a human invention?
4. How has the gospel changed the way you live? How do you think about this question if you came to faith when you were very young?
5. Have you paid a cost for believing the gospel? Having paid that cost how do you feel about it and talk about that price now?
6. Take time as a group to identify one person each that you are sharing the gospel with and pray for them together.

Memory Verse: Galatians 1:11

For I would have you know, brothers, that the gospel that was preached by me is not man's gospel.
