

Galatians: Christ Sets Us Free

Faith Creates a God Honoring Life | Trent Thompson

Galatians 2:17-21

How does faith create a God honoring life?

We die to the law.

We are raised in Christ.

We draw on the love of Christ through the Spirit.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Read Galatians 2:17-21 again. What stands out to you? What questions does this passage raise for you?
2. How often do you think of the internal spiritual realities of Christians described in this passage? What makes it hard to get our minds around them?
3. Do you ever hear people argue that Christianity just makes it possible for people to live however they want and still be forgiven? How do you usually respond? How would this passage tell us to respond?
4. Can you remember a time when you were exhausted by trying to use your own personality, effort, and skills to be good? What happened?
5. What most compels you about Jesus on the cross? What makes you want to be identified with Him in His death?
6. We no longer live, but Christ lives in us. Where are you currently asking Jesus to make Himself more evident in and through you?
7. How can you grow in drawing on Christ's love through the Spirit as described in Romans 8?

Memory Verse: Galatians 2:20

²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Next Week's Text: Galatians 3:1-9
