Daniel | Layne Lebo

Daniel 1:1-21 & 6:1-23

God's favor and Daniel's faith and obedience allowed him to hold a significant position of leadership for a long time.

When colleagues grew jealous of Daniel's success, they sought to find fault with him. Then these men said, "We shall not find any ground for complaint against this Daniel unless we find it in connection with the law of his God." Daniel 6:5

God grants us His favor in response to our obedience and commitment to Him.

The impact we can have in difficult and ungodly circumstances goes far beyond what we can imagine or ask God for.

Daniel's courage and devotion to God, his integrity as he interacted with people, and his humility before God as God repeatedly granted him favor and success is a great example to us.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What do you learn about Daniel in chapter 1 and chapter 6? Did you learn anything new?
2. Daniel's experience in Ch.1 prepared him for his experience in Ch.6. When have you seen this play out in your life, where smaller challenges prepared you to face larger ones?
3. In light of this, how might this shift the way we view the current challenges in our lives?
4. Picking either Ch 1 or Ch 6, imagine what you would do if you were in one of these situations. How much like Daniel would you respond?
5. Are you willing to trust God when it costs you something? When do you find it hard to do so?
6. Is there a current situation or difficulty that you are facing and how can we as a LifeGroup support you through it?
