

SERMON NOTES

Christ For All Life

October 8, 2023

Love One Another | Trent Thompson

Ask yourself, why are we supposed to love each other?

He made it a command and gave us the Spirit. (11, 23-24)

He took away the competition between us that produced hatred. (12-15)

He has shown us what love is. (16-18)

He reassures us with our love to make us love. (19-20)

Questions for Reflection/Discussion:

Read I John 3:11-24

1. What stands out to you most in this passage or from the sermon?
2. Why do you think John emphasizes loving other Christians (if you're a Christian), rather than loving all people?
3. How have you experienced the power of the Holy Spirit helping you love another believer? How do you think we access that power more regularly?
4. Have you felt competition or animosity towards another Christian because their actions outshined yours? How can we readily remember our place before God together that puts this animosity to death?
5. Do you have any material possessions that you find it hard to give up/use to meet other's needs? Why do you think this is hard?
6. Who did God give you the opportunity to love by meeting their need this week?
