Jesus' Work is Compassion | Trent Thompson

Mark 5:21-43

Jesus' works reveal the compassion of God.

Our desperation isn't an imposition to God.

Our guilt doesn't dry up God's compassion.

God's compassion isn't just for certain types of people.

When God shows compassion to someone else, it doesn't mean He's forgotten me.

God doesn't lack the power or compassion we need.

Applying God's Word

1. Read Mark 5:21-43 together. What stands out to you from this story? Why?
2. Do you find it easy or hard to believe God is compassionate? How have events in your life shaped your view?
3. Of the 5 points regarding God's compassion in the sermon which is hardest for you to believe or put into practice?
4. Compassion is action produced by a deep feeling within ourselves. Many people live as if feelings simply are what they are and can't be changed. How can God command us to have a feeling of compassion?
5. If someone asked you to explain the process by which our hearts can come to feel something different than what they feel by nature, what would you say?

Memory Verse: Mark 5:36

But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe."
