

SERMON NOTES

July 28, 2024

Psalms

The Calling of Congregational Worship

Psalm 95 | George Romanacce

We are called to express worship to God through singing.

We are called to have our worship formed and informed by who God is and what He's done.

We are called to give our whole being, including our posture to God in worship.

We are called to worship God without a hardness of heart.

SERMON NOTES

July 28, 2024

Psalms

The Calling of Congregational Worship

Psalm 95 | George Romanacce

We are called to express worship to God through singing.

We are called to have our worship formed and informed by who God is and what He's done.

We are called to give our whole being, including our posture to God in worship.

We are called to worship God without a hardness of heart.

Applying God's Word

1. What speaks to you most from Psalm 95 on the topic of congregational worship?
2. How do you see a passion or lack of passion to sing to the Lord in your own life?
3. How has congregational worship affected you most?
4. What is your response to the call to be physically expressive in worship?
5. Are you using the word of God to be the anchor that grounds the types of worship songs you listen to and take in?
6. What areas in your own life could cause a hardness of heart before the Lord?

Applying God's Word

1. What speaks to you most from Psalm 95 on the topic of congregational worship?
2. How do you see a passion or lack of passion to sing to the Lord in your own life?
3. How has congregational worship affected you most?
4. What is your response to the call to be physically expressive in worship?
5. Are you using the word of God to be the anchor that grounds the types of worship songs you listen to and take in?
6. What areas in your own life could cause a hardness of heart before the Lord?