ROMANS: The Gospel for All People

The Gospel Shaped Heart, Romans 1:8-15 | Trent Thompson

Does my heart love people? (8-15)

Is my heart full of thanks to God? (8-9)

Does my heart rejoice in faith? (8, 12-13)

Applying God's Word

1. Read Romans 1:8-15 again. State the main idea of this paragraph in your own words. What are some of the key phrases that tell you this is the main idea?
2. Why does Paul take time to express his heart to the Romans before getting into his explanation of the gospel and its implications?
3. Did God show you anything from the three diagnostic questions we discussed in the sermon?
4. In what way would you like to grow in your ability to express love to others?
5. Who demonstrates faith that regularly encourages you?
6. How well were you able to fill in your tic-tac-toe board? Is there a neighbor you can take a first step towards getting to know?

Memory Verse: Romans 1:11-12

For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you — that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine.
