

SERMON NOTES

October 6, 2024

ROMANS: The Gospel for All People
Romans 1:18 - 20 | Trent Thompson

To treasure the gospel, we must understand our true spiritual condition outside of Christ.

How should I approach this section of Romans?

Why does God require righteousness?

What was the nature of our unrighteousness?

SERMON NOTES

October 6, 2024

ROMANS: The Gospel for All People
Romans 1:18 - 20 | Trent Thompson

To treasure the gospel, we must understand our true spiritual condition outside of Christ.

How should I approach this section of Romans?

Why does God require righteousness?

What was the nature of our unrighteousness?

Applying God's Word

1. What is one way God showed you His love this week? What is one opportunity He gave you to show it to someone else?
2. Read Romans 1:18-20. What do you think are the key words for understanding this passage? Why?
3. Paul will use this section of Romans to show us our spiritual condition outside of Christ. He will highlight that our sin can take on a "religious" nature (self-righteousness, pride, legalism) or an "irreligious" nature (license, being controlled by dishonorable passions). Which were you prone to? How does that still show itself in your life?
4. Why is it important to understand the true nature of our spiritual condition outside of Christ, to treasure the gospel?
5. If you are in Christ, how has the destructive, active, inexcusable nature of your past sin caused your love for God to grow now?
6. Accepting the true nature and consequence of our sin is difficult. What is the role of a Christian in helping an unbeliever see this?

Memory Verse: Romans 1:18

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth.

Applying God's Word

1. What is one way God showed you His love this week? What is one opportunity He gave you to show it to someone else?
2. Read Romans 1:18-20. What do you think are the key words for understanding this passage? Why?
3. Paul will use this section of Romans to show us our spiritual condition outside of Christ. He will highlight that our sin can take on a "religious" nature (self-righteousness, pride, legalism) or an "irreligious" nature (license, being controlled by dishonorable passions). Which were you prone to? How does that still show itself in your life?
4. Why is it important to understand the true nature of our spiritual condition outside of Christ, to treasure the gospel?
5. If you are in Christ, how has the destructive, active, inexcusable nature of your past sin caused your love for God to grow now?
6. Accepting the true nature and consequence of our sin is difficult. What is the role of a Christian in helping an unbeliever see this?

Memory Verse: Romans 1:18

For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth.