

SERMON NOTES

October 20, 2024

ROMANS: The Gospel for All People
Romans 1:21 - 32 | Trent Thompson

We need the gospel because the effects of sin are more far reaching than we imagine.

We refused to worship God. (21-22, 25, 28)

We worshipped created things. (23, 25)

God gave us over to our desires (24, 26-32)

Applying God's Word

1. What stood out to you from the sermon this week?
2. Read Romans 1:21-32 together. How would you state the main idea of this passage in your own words?
3. Have you underestimated the impact and depth of your sin and sinful nature at any point? Why is it hard to fully comprehend the truth about sin?
4. Paul describes the same cycle of sin three times in this passage. Can you put it into your own words, pointing to where each step is found in the text?
5. Why is it important to understand the effects of this cycle in the realm of sex and sexuality?
6. Why is it important not to limit the effects of this cycle to sex and sexuality?
7. What do you see in this passage that reflect ways you struggle with sin?
8. As we prepare to talk more about sex and sexuality next week, where do you feel confused, challenged, or conflicted on this subject? What would you hope to learn and/or what makes you feel apprehensive?

Memory Verse: Romans 1:21

For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened.
