Applying God's Word

1. Read Romans 2:1-5. What stands out to you in the passage? What stood out from the sermon?
2. Why do you think Paul begins talking to the Jews by identifying their hypocrisy?
3. Where do you see legalism, that keeps people from believing the gospel, in our society?
4. Where do you see the remains of legalism in yourself?
5. What spiritual blindness has been produced by it in you?
6. How do those remains impact your relationship with God and others?

Memory Verse: Romans 2:1

Therefore, you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things.
