

ROMANS: The Gospel for All People

The Gospel Manifests the Righteousness of God | Trent Thompson

How can we see the righteousness the gospel gives for the gift it is?

See its source. (21)

See its permanence. (21)

See how it isn't acquired. (21)

See how it is acquired. (22)

See who we are without it. (23)

See its origins. (24, 21)

See its cost. (24, 25a)

Applying God's Word

1. What stood out to you this week from Romans 3:21-26?
2. Why is it important to see God's righteousness as the aim of the gospel?
3. What is the difference between believing we receive the status of righteous before God through the gospel and believing we receive a realized righteousness? What impact does this have on how we fight sin day to day?
4. What is the difference between seeing God's grace as the origin of the gospel rather than our faith? Why do we say we are saved by grace through faith, rather than just by faith?
5. How does believing we have God's righteousness effect the way we pray?
6. How does it affect the way we relate to each other?

Memory Verse: Romans 3:21

²¹ But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it.
