Faith that is Counted as Righteousness | Trent Thompson

Romans 4:13-25

What kind of faith is counted as righteousness?

Faith that isn't focused on self or circumstances.

Faith that is focused on God's power and goodness.

Faith that believes God will do what He has promised.

Romans 4:13-25

What kind of faith is counted as righteousness?

Faith that isn't focused on self or circumstances.

Faith that is focused on God's power and goodness.

Faith that believes God will do what He has promised.

Applying God's Word

1. What is a situation you faced this week that required faith? What made it hard to have faith? What helped you have faith?
2. Read Romans 4:13-25. Have one person summarize verses 13-16, another summarize verses 17-22, and a final person summarize verses 23-25.
3. In the sermon we talked about three aspects of genuine faith. What are they? Why do you think these are the three things Paul focuses on here?
4. How does your faith measure up to Paul's assessment of genuine faith?
5. Take time to name some promises God has made to us in Christ, that we can use as fuel for our faith.
6. What is one context in life where you need to more fully live by faith?

Memory Verse: Romans 4:23-25

²³ But the words "it was counted to him" were not written for his sake alone, ²⁴ but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, ²⁵ who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.
