

Elder Nominations

Andrew Caudill (1st term)

Andrew's life is driven by a deep desire to see every person and nation come to know and love Jesus. God saved him at a young age and has continually transformed and equipped him for His purposes ever since. Andrew is married to Taylor, and together they enjoy raising their four young children.

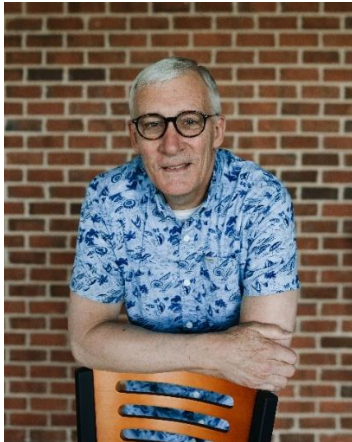

Beyond his ministry at home and in the local community, Andrew serves as the Executive Director of Live Global, a missions organization working in over 50 countries. He and Taylor frequently travel internationally as they lead and support their global team. Since moving to the area in 2019, their family has been actively involved at West Shore Free Church, serving in various roles, including Life Group ministries and teaching in Logos.

Ty Miller (1st term)

The Lord performed His miraculous work of salvation in Tyler's heart at a young age. He and his wife, Breana, have been attending the church since 2008 and have been serving together in the Preparing for Marriage and Awesome Adventure ministries over the last few years. Prior to that, they were leaders in the SixTen fellowship class. Tyler has also served on the lead team for the Leadership Development Track since 2018 and spoke at two Men's Ministry retreats. Tyler and Breana live in Mechanicsburg and have three children, Grayson, Weston, and Michaela. He enjoys coaching them in soccer, rock climbing, golfing, and skiing. He works as a mechanical engineer on movable bridges at Modjeski and Masters.

Ned Davis (2nd term)

Ned and his wife Janet have attended West Shore Free Church since 1994. Called to faith in Christ over 50 years ago, Ned has served this church in a variety of ways including as a fellowship and small group leader, elder, worship team member, marriage mentor with Janet and as Administrative Pastor for 15 years, retiring in 2022. Prior to church administration, Ned served as a career Marine Corps officer and defense contractor. He enjoys biblical theology, fitness, the outdoors, travel, and reading. He resides in Dillsburg. Ned and Janet have 4 married sons and 14 grandchildren.
