ROMANS: The Gospel For All People

The Spirit Prays For Us | Trent Thompson

Romans 8:26-27

What makes the Spirit's prayers a great source of assurance?

They come from within God's own nature.

They do not share the weakness of our prayers.

They remind us that God is not angry with our weakness.

They remind us that our maturity and perseverance rest wholly on God.

They are offered with a passion that is greater than our pain.

Applying God's Word

Sharing the gospel with others is crucial to maturing in our faith and building relationships with our neighbors is an important practice to do so. Let's ask one question each week that will help us do this.

Who in one person God has brought into your life that needs Jesus?
What is one need they have for which you can pray every day this week?

1. Read Romans 8:26-27. What stands out to you?
2. How does the word "likewise" at the beginning of these verses connect them to what came before?
3. Have you ever considered the Spirit's prayers for you before? What benefit stands out to you from those discussed in the sermon or those in the text?
4. How does knowing the Spirit prays for us impact our own prayers?

Memory Verse: Romans 8:26 ESV

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words.
