ROMANS: The Gospel For All People

Learning to Delight in God's Sovereignty: Part 1 | Trent Thompson

We can learn to delight in God's sovereignty in all its implications.

God's sovereignty makes us love lost people more, not less.

God's sovereignty assures us that He is keeping His word even when we don't understand how.

God's sovereignty in salvation allows us to rejoice fully in grace.

1. Where did you see God at work in someone else's life this week?
2. Read Romans 9: 6-13. What are some of the key words or phrases in this passage? What makes them important?
3. Summarize Paul's point in this paragraph. Why is he making this point?
4. Do you find the doctrine of election joyful, confusing, frustrating, or something else? Why?
5. Which of the 4 options for interpreting the phrase "purpose of election" discussed in the sermon do you lean towards? Why? Do you see another option?
6. Which of the three reasons to delight in God's sovereignty over salvation resonates with you most and why?

Scripture Memory: Romans 9:10-11

And not only so, but also when Rebekah had conceived children by one man, our forefather Isaac, though they were not yet born and had done nothing either good or bad—in order that God's purpose of election might continue, not because of works but because of him who calls—
