The Unsearchable Love of God

Romans 13:8-10 | Trent Thompson

Love is a debt:

Love is deeper than obedience:

Love helps me see what is right:

Love is not defined by me:

Love will be our instinct one day:

LifeGroup Discussion Questions:

1. Who showed you God's love this week? What did they do that demonstrated it well?
2. Read Romans 13:8-10. Why do you think Paul returns to the topic of love after talking about governing authorities?
3. What stands out to you most from this passage or from the sermon?
4. Describe what the phrase "the one who loves another has fulfilled the law" means in your own words.
5. How has love helped you discern the right thing to do in the past?
6. Where, or with whom, are you most tempted to define love in your own terms rather than God's terms?
7. If God's love surpasses knowledge (Ephesians 3:19) and we must be full of that love, how do we grow in love?

B.L.E.S.S. Question of the Week:

What is the hardest part of loving someone who doesn't share your faith in Jesus? How can you be intentional to grow in that?

Memory Verse:

"Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law." - Romans 13:8
