

NEW HERE?

We'd love to get you connected!

Our Next Large Group Event:

Agios Challenge

August 23 | 3-8 pm
Church

Sign up for a LifeGroup →

If your family serves or attends a learning community during the 9 a.m. service and your student is not yet ready to serve, you may register them for our Student Sunday School class (grades 7-12)

STUDENT SERMON NOTES

August 9, 2026

CAFE CONNECTION

Join us in the Student Cafe from 10:15 - 10:40 a.m. every Sunday for snacks, games, and connection between services!

At West Shore, we believe students benefit most on Sunday mornings from consistently worshipping with the whole body of Believers and learning to serve with the Spirit's Gifts.

INTERACT WITH THE TEXT

Circle repeated words, underline important phrases, and draw arrows to connecting ideas.

Romans 14:1-15:7 (v. 5-9 below)

⁵One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. ⁷For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. ⁸For if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. ⁹For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

UNDERSTAND THE TEXT

Read definitions of important words and concepts.

“For to this end Christ died and lived again...” - This means that Christ’s ultimate aim in life and death wasn’t to “get people into Heaven.” Rather, it was to have people be in a true relationship with God and seek to honor Him - both now and into eternity.

ANALYZE THE TEXT

Write what you don’t want to forget.

Welcome the strong:

Determine not to judge the strong:

Grow at God’s pace:

APPLY THE TEXT

Ask these questions in the car ride home.

What is 1 thing you want to remember from this sermon?

Are there any “next steps” God might be calling you towards? Explain.