SERMON NOTES

November 29, 2026

What A Beautiful Name It Is: Immanuel

Matthew 1:18-25 | Quay San

Main Point: Jesus as Immanuel helps us see the beauty and believability of Jesus

Believability: Past promises help us to have future faith

Beauty: The God who answers promises is with us in every season

God is with us in the waiting

God is with us in the receiving

God is with us in the going

APPLYING GOD'S WORD (For LifeGroups)

LifeGroups are a place to commit to Christ-Centered relationships and grow in our faith together. Learn more at westshorefree.org/lifegroups.

LifeGroup Discussion Questions:

1. When have you seen God answer his promises?
2. Which season do you find it hardest to remember that God is with you? Waiting, receiving, or sending?
3. Where do you find yourself in a season of waiting? How can you wait in faith? Pray for one another
4. Where do you find yourself in a season of receiving? How can you receive in faith? Give thanks together
5. Where do you find yourself in a season of sending? How can you go in faith? Pray for one another

Memory Verse:
"All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: 'Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel' (which means, God with us)." - Matthew 1:22-23

Find Digital Sermon Notes & Previous Sermons:
westshorefree.org/sermons